

Dr. Kathrin Schönborn-Sobolewski

Vice President, Global Head Strategic Partnership Unit
MerckSerono Global Research & Development

Merck KGaA
Frankfurter Str. 250
D 64293 Darmstadt
www.merckgroup.com

Dr Kathrin Schoenborn-Sobolewski is the Global Head Strategic Partnership Unit, a newly formed Business Unit leading Merck Serono's clinical development alliance with Quintiles. Before taking over this position she held various leadership positions of increasing responsibility within the Merck group including the areas Project Management, Business Development/Licensing, High Potential Products, Global Change Management, Clinical Trial Management and Clinical Strategy & Operations. Prior to joining Merck in 1995, Kathrin started her industry career as Project Manager at SANDOZ (today Novartis). Kathrin is a pharmacist and obtained her Ph.D. at Bonn University/Germany. Since several years she is engaged with the Healthcare Businesswomen Association, serving on the European Chapter Board as Program Director Germany.